

Baby & Me

Having a baby changes everything! In the first year everything is new and the changes in the baby's and family's lives happen quickly. Connecting with others becomes important for new parents and infants. Baby & Me offers opportunities to talk about your baby's development and first milestones, fun activities and hear about community supports through invited guest speakers. And most importantly self-care.

This group is for caregivers with babies 8M and under.